

Stages is pleased to announce a Student Art Contest in celebration of the upcoming production of Panto Alicia in Wonderland, written by TEATRX. Submissions and winning artwork will be displayed on exhibition at The Gordy from December 1st-31st, 2023.*

PROMPT: In this year's Panto, Alicia visits a Wonderland where she explores her heritage as well as the journey of becoming a woman. She meets many wonderful and wacky friends along the way! When you imagine your own Wonderland, what do you see?

PRIZES:

1st Place Prize: $500

2nd Place Prize: $250

(Up to 5) Honorable Mentions: $100 each

Artists will also be invited to be celebrated at the Night Market held at Stages on December 16th, 2023 from 4:00-8:00 p.m.

ELIGIBLE CONTESTANTS: Current 6th - 12th Grade Students (Ages 11 - 18.)

HOW TO SUBMIT: One entry per student. Art may be in any medium (pencil, paint, charcoal, oil pastels, collage, photography, digital, etc.), but no AI submissions are allowed.

ALL SUBMISSIONS DUE BY 5:00 P.M. on FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2023.

Winners will be notified by FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2023.

Entries may be submitted either:

1. Online via this form. If submitting online, we ask for the highest possible resolution.
2. In Person at Stages at 800 Rosine, Houston, TX 77019. (Monday-Friday, 9:00-5:00, or Saturday-Sunday, 12:00-4:00). Please still complete this form with your contact information.

If you have any questions about your submission, or are unable to submit via one of these methods, please contact our Community Engagement Manager, Elizabeth Keel at ekeel@stageshouston.com or 346.320.0052 for assistance.

*Stages will be closed from January 1st-7th, 2024. Families may retrieve their artwork from Stages after January 8th, 2024.